

Isle of Bute 2020 Provisional Itinerary

Monday 17 August

Travel to Glasgow by train, arriving at Queens Street station mid-morning, meet Neil and book into accommodation, a 15-minute walk from the station. Afternoon and evening free time to explore Glasgow.

Tuesday 18 August

An early start after a buffet style breakfast at the hotel, then cycle to Weymss Bay to catch the ferry to Bute, stopping for lunch in Paisley. Afternoon and evening spent in Rothesay, using the Bute Backpackers Hostel as our base. Evening meal in Rothesay.

Wednesday 19 August

An early start, breakfast at the hostel, and cycle to Portavadie to catch the ferry to Tarbert for the night, evening meal in the hotel.

Thursday 20 August

Breakfast at the hotel before cycling to catch the ferry to Arran, staying in the hostel in Lochranza. Evening meal at the local restaurant.

Friday 21 August

Breakfast in the hostel. Then a free day to explore the island, either cycling, walking or local transport. Evening meal at the hostel.

Saturday 22 August

An early start, breakfast at the hostel and then cycle to catch the ferry to Ardrossan. Train back to Glasgow and then on to Newcastle, arriving at approximately 18:30.

Price for the above tour will be in the region of £550, but the final price will be determined by numbers coming.

Neil

8 February